Placeholders for lines, circles, and arrows may have a dotted line perimeter > ignore this. The lines will show normally in presentation view.

Text won't fit in the box: highlight the entire text box and change all the overall size:

Remove dotted red lines: to remove the guides go to the View tab > deselect "guides"

Image placeholders (large) have a grey fill for easier identification. If you want to remove the fill:
Click on the shape > shape format tab > shape fill drop list > select "no fill"

Replacing photos in the presentation: click on the photo > hit delete > click on the image icon in center of placeholder to browse to new image on your computer

HOW DOES MINDFULNESS FIT IN?

In response to the readings - a lot of people reported suppressing emotions and being confused about how mindfulness could help them better manage emotions. They appear mostly to get how it helps identification of emotions, but are not asking about managing them...with some still wanting to pursue strategy of suppressing.
